{CAMBIO WONDERBAR} Welcome to a world without barriers. The Cambio system from Byrne takes power and data to international heights, and with Wonderbar, that flexibility to work anywhere means anywhere in the office, too. Wonderbar's streamlined design allows it to be mounted along a work surface edge, directly onto the wall, or below the table top. Fully scalable and customizable, Wonderbar easily accommodates the changing technology demands of any work environment. Wonderbar is available in modular connector and plug versions (contact your sales representative for list of available plug types). Wonderbar and its components meet IEC standards and the Cambio coupler system is IEC 60529 IP4X rated. To learn more, visit us at www.byrne-electrical.com.
