Ellora Well

The Ellora family is all about providing power for everyone at the table. And with Ellora Well, we've taken it up a level. Or should we say down? Generously proportioned below the worksurface, Ellora Well welcomes even the largest power adapters out there—including the mighty Mac charging brick—so laptops charge fast and out of sight. Its deep well design allows for easy cord management too, with power and USB options to accommodate your whole team. All this tucked under a seamless, soft-closing lid for a clean, modern appearance. Looking for a streamlined solution to your oversized charging needs? Just dig a little deeper—with Ellora Well.

Double Sided Ellora Well (EW2X)

Smartly designed with generous proportions below the worksurface, Ellora Well already takes on the largest adapters out there—including those Mac power bricks—so tech can charge fast and out of sight. It just doesn't get any more powerful than that... unless you double it. Meet Double Ellora Well, EW2X for short. With EW2X, you'll find the same deep well design, and the same wide range of power and USB options to accommodate any team—but with easy access from both sides, for more space to plug in. It's the perfect choice for media sharing tables. And it's all still tucked under a seamless, soft-closing lid to deliver a modern, streamlined appearance. For serious double-sided power that hides cord clutter neatly out of sight, there's only one Double Ellora Well.
